BOOK OF JOSHUA

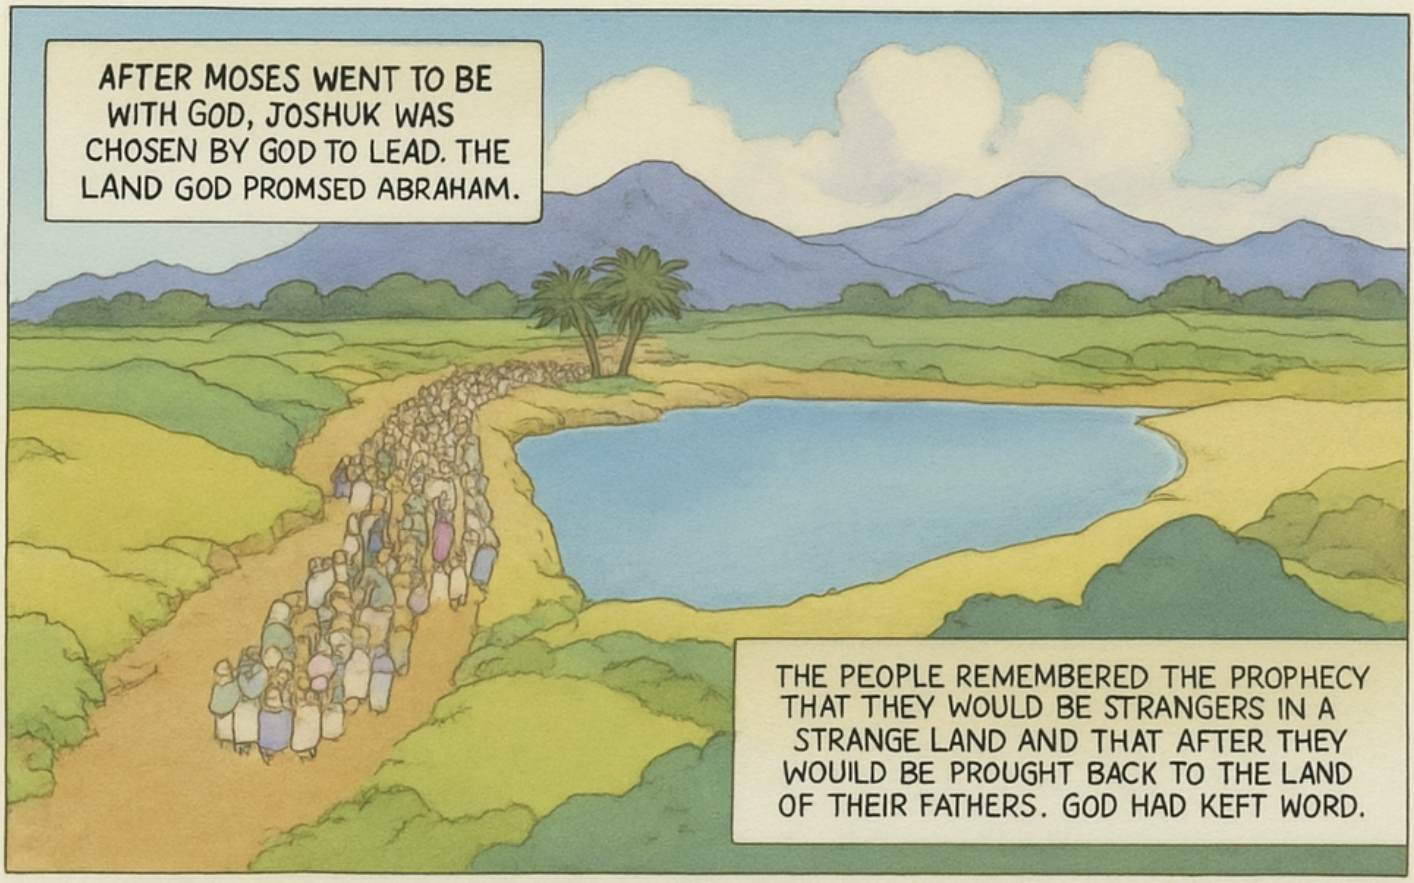
Long ago,
the people of God stood trembling
They had wandered for years,
The Promised Land shimmered across the water—



DEUTERONOMY 34; JOSHUA 5:12

DEUTERONOMY 34.8-12

And so Hyrule stood before them,
a world waiting to be restored–
Giants ruled its gates,
idols sang songs in its hills
Ganondorf ruled its grounds,
but there lived
a servant who listend

JOSHUA OF ISRAEL,
THE FRODO OF THE SHIRE,
THE LINK OF KOKIRI, CHOSEN BY THE LORD GOD
TO FINISH
WHERE GANDALF HAD BEGUN.

His cleverness could never defeat Ganon,
his own strength could not match
the army of Canaan.
He had nothing left but obedience.

BEHOLD — the Sword of the Spirit.

SO JOSHUA ROSE,
NOT WITH RAGE,
BUT WITH REVERENCE
FOR THE WORLD HAD NOT YET FELT
THE FULL NATURE OF SIN.
VIOLENCE WAS THEIR FIRST LANGUAGE.

DO THIS FOR SIX DAYS.
GOD GAVE CLEAR INSTRUCTIONS..
Have seven priests carry trumpets of ram horns in front of the ark.
JOSHUA GAVE THEM COMMAND.
DO NOT GIVE A WAR CRY.
DO NOT SAY A WORD UNTIL THE DAY I TELL YOU TO SHOUT.
ON THE SEVENTH DAY, MARCH AROUND THE CITY SEVEN TIMES.

SHOUT!
For the LORD has given you the city!

THE ARK OF THE COVENANT CAME LIKE THE TROJAN HORSE of JUDAH
